Part 1: Interpretation and Application

1. Interpretation

- a) In the Bylaws, unless otherwise stated, words in the singular include the plural and vice-versa, the use of a masculine or feminine form is intended to denote both genders.
- b) All terms which are used in the Bylaws which are defined in the Act shall have the meaning given to them in the Act unless otherwise specified.
- c) The Bylaws of the National Board herein referred to as the "Corporation" consist of the Articles of Continuance, the Certificate of Continuance, and the Bylaws.

1.1 Corporate Seal

The National Corporation shall have a corporate seal in such a form as authorized by the National Board of Directors and shall be safeguarded in the National Office. The secretary of the Corporation shall be the custodian of the corporate seal. A document signed on behalf of a corporation is not invalid merely because a corporate seal is not affixed to it.

2.1 Definitions

In these Bylaws, and in all other rules and regulations and policies, unless otherwise stated, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them:

The following definitions apply in this Act.

“Act” means the Canada Not-For-Profit Corporations Act, S.C. 2009 c.23 as from time to time amended and any replacement statute subsequently enacted by whichever law is applicable to the Corporation at the time. The term “Act” shall also encompass any corporation’s regulations made pursuant to the Act.

“Adult” means a person eighteen (18) years of age or older.

“Affiliate Branch” means the status granted to a provincial or territorial group which has negotiated an agreement with an established Branch and has the approval of the National Board of Directors.

"Affiliate Chapter" means an organized group of no fewer than six (6) voting members created at the discretion of the Branch Board of Directors, residing in a jurisdiction as defined by the Bylaws of the Provincial or Territorial Branch in whose jurisdiction the Chapter is situated.

"Affiliate Member" is an individual who resides outside of Canada and has no voting rights.

"Associate Membership Organization (AMO)" means an organization or group whose membership allows a maximum of 15 individuals access to services and information from Canadian Parents for French. AMO's do not have voting privileges.

“Branch” means a provincial or territorial body that is a part of the Corporation. There shall be at least two (2) Chapters and twenty-five (25) members in the province or territory before a Branch may be recognized.

"Branch Board" means the duly elected provincial or territorial Board of Directors as defined in the Branch Bylaws.

“Chapter” means an organized group of six (6) members residing in a jurisdiction as defined by the Bylaws of the Provincial or Territorial Branch in whose jurisdiction the Chapter is situated. The Chapter is administered in accordance with the Branch bylaws.

"Chairperson" means the person chosen to chair the meeting. The National President shall be the chairperson of meetings of the Board of Directors and/or voting Delegates and shall preside at all regular meetings, Annual General Meetings or Special General Meetings. In the absence of the President, the Vice-President or designate shall preside. In the absence of the Vice-President, the Board of Directors and/or voting Delegates present shall choose one of themselves as chairperson.

"Council of Executive Directors" The Council of Executive Directors will be comprised of all duly hired Branch Executive Directors and the National Executive Director.

"Council of Presidents" The Council of Presidents will be comprised of all duly elected Branch Presidents and the National President. The Branch Vice Presidents and the National Vice President can be asked to serve as respective designates. Vice Presidents may be invited to attend specific meetings with their respective Presidents.

“Director” means a member of the Board.

“Ends” comprise the operating philosophy and focus statements in accordance with the mission, vision, values and ends policy statements for the Corporation.

“Executive Limitations” comprise constraints on executive authority establishing the prudent and ethical boundaries within which all executive activity and decisions shall take place.

“Ex officio” mean persons who are members of a committee by virtue of some other office or position that they hold.

“Governance Process” involves setting priorities and specific rules as to how the Board of Directors conceives, carries out and monitors its own role in managing programs.

“Governance Structure of the Corporation” consists of 3 corporate entities accountable to the wider membership: a) a National, b) a Branch, b) a Chapter structure. Each has defined responsibilities, rights and rewards, and must abide by rules, practices and procedures ensuring proper supervision, control, and information flow to serve as an integrated system.

“Instruments in Writing” means all documents, deeds, mortgages, hypothecs, pledges, charges, liens, conveyances, transfers, and assignments of property (real or immovable, personal or movable), agreements, contracts, tenders, releases, receipts, and discharges for the payments of money or other obligations, conveyances, transfers, and assignments of shares, stocks, bonds, debentures or other securities.

“Member” means any adult who is interested in furthering the objects of Canadian Parents for French and whose application for admission as a member has been accepted. Members are assigned to the province/territory in which they reside.

“Member in Good Standing” means a member who has paid in full his membership dues for the relevant year.

“National Board” means the National Board of Directors of the Corporation as constituted pursuant to the Act and these Bylaws.

‘National Annual General Meeting’ otherwise referred to AGM is a mandatory, public yearly gathering of Canadian Parents for French’s Board of Directors, Voting Delegates and interested members and stakeholders.

“Notice in Writing” includes notice delivered by mail, electronically or by any method which results in a copy of the notice arriving at the last known mailing address or e-mail address of the person for whom the notice is intended.

“Officer” means the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer or any other individual occupying a position on the National Board with defined functions.

“Ordinary Resolution” means a resolution passed by a majority not less than 50% plus 1 of the votes cast for that resolution.

“Soliciting Corporation” means a corporation that has received more than $10,000 in income from public sources in a single financial year and is subject to the rules established for number of directors, financial audit and the filing of financial statements with Corporations Canada. Public sources can include gifts, donations, grants from governments, etc.

“Special Resolution” means a resolution passed by a majority not less than two thirds (2/3) of the votes cast for that resolution.

“Voting Delegates” means the members of the National Board of Directors and Branch Presidents, or their designates, who make up the voting members at the National Annual General Meetings and Special General Meetings.

2.3 Property/Control

All property of every nature and kind, (both real and immovable, personal and movable), that is the custody of any committee, officer, employee or other person on behalf of the Corporation shall be subject to the direction of the National Board of Directors. This includes, without limitation, cash, debentures, bonds, stock or other securities and every estate or interest therein, donations, whether solicited or unsolicited and whether arising from fund-raising campaigns, legacies, bequests, and other testamentary gifts or otherwise. All legacies, bequests and other testamentary gifts, unless subject to a trust requiring them to be otherwise controlled, shall be at the National Office, subject to the direction of the Board of Directors. When any property is impressed with a trust that is not within the principles of this control, such property must be refused by the National Board of Directors. Any property acquired in the form of a gift, whether testamentary or otherwise, may be retained in the form in which it was when acquired, for such length of time as the National Board determines, according to Canadian Parents for French’s current investment policy.

Directors shall be elected for a term of two (2) years from the end of the AGM at which the National Director is elected to the end of the AGM two (2) years later and for continuity purposes terms will be staggered. A person may be elected to the National Board for a maximum of eight (8) years in total.

128.3 Election of National Board of Directors

National Directors shall be elected using a secure and secret voting process by the voting delegates prior to the National Annual General Meeting from a list of eligible nominees provided by the Nominating Committee. The election must be ratified at the Annual General Meeting by ordinary resolution of the Voting Delegates.

129 Ceasing to Hold Office

129.1 Ceasing to Hold Office – Director

An individual shall cease to be a National Director when:

- a) The Director resigns from the National Board by delivering notice in writing to the National President or Vice-President, in care of the National Office, in which case the resignation be effective on the date specified in the letter of resignation or, in absence of such date, the date the resignation is accepted by the National Board.
- b) The Director is removed from office; or
- c) The Director vacates, or is deemed to have vacated, the position of National Director, when he withdraws from, or has been removed from membership;
- d) Or if the Director dies.

132.1 Filling Director Vacancies

If a vacancy occurs, the Voting Delegates may hold a vote electronically or at a Special General Meeting or the Nominating Committee may recommend to the Board an individual to fill that vacancy by appointment with a new Director from the date of that vacancy until the next AGM.

134.1 Notice of Change of Director or Director's Address

A Director who changes jurisdiction must, within the prescribed period, send the Corporation a notice of any change in his or her address. This change of address may affect eligibility of the director to remain serving on the National Board of Directors after the end of the current year based on the province or territory in which they now reside.

136 Meeting of Directors

136.1 Meetings

The National Board of Directors shall meet in conjunction with the Annual General Meeting and at least twice outside of the Annual General Meeting.

136.1.2 Meetings of Network Leadership

The National Board of Directors, Council of Presidents, and Council of Executive Directors shall meet in conjunction with the Annual General Meeting and may meet outside of the Annual General Meeting.

136.2 Quorum

A majority of National Board Directors currently serving constitutes a quorum at a Board Meeting, whether meeting face-to-face or by electronic means. If a vacancy on the National Board arises, continuing directors may act, as long as a quorum exists at the meeting.

137.1 Decisions made by Consensus

Any decisions taken during a National Board of Directors meeting may be made by consensus except a decision taken by special resolution. If consensus cannot be reached, then the decision shall be made by ordinary resolution.

137.3 Voting at Meetings

An individual must be a Canadian Parents for French member in good standing to sit as a director or voting delegate at the national level. Each member of the National Board, including the chairperson, has one vote. Questions arising at any meeting and requiring a vote shall be decided by ordinary resolution of those National Directors present and voting.

141 Disclosure of Interest

141.1 Pecuniary Interest

National Board Directors shall avoid and shall disclose any circumstances in which their personal pecuniary interests conflict, or may be reasonably perceived to conflict, with the interests of the Corporation.

142 Officers

142.1 Election of National Board Officers

The National Board President and Vice President shall be elected, individually by secret ballot for a one year term, by ordinary resolution of the Voting Delegates at the National Annual General Meeting from the elected members of the National Board of Directors. All remaining officers shall be appointed by the National Board for a one year term of office. A Director may serve as President for a maximum of four (4) years.

142.1.2 Ceasing to Hold Office – Officer

An individual shall cease to be an officer of the National Board when:

a) The Officer resigns by delivering notice in writing to the National President or Vice-President, in care of the National Office, in which case the resignation shall be effective on the date specified in the notice of resignation. In absence of such date, on the date the resignation is accepted by the National Board;

- b) The Officer is removed from office;
- c) The Officer vacates, or is deemed to have vacated, the position of National Director, when he withdraws from, or has been removed from membership; or
- d) If the Officer dies;

An Officer who has been removed from office may also be removed as a Director.

142.1.3 Removal of Officers

The National Board President and Vice President shall be removed by the authority of Voting Delegates. All other officers may be removed by the authority of National Board for

- a) Violating any provision of the articles, by-laws or written policies of;
- b) Carrying out any conduct which may be detrimental to the Corporation as determined by the Board in its sole discretion; or
- c) For any other reason that the Board and/or Voting Delegates, at their discretion, considers to be inconsistent with the objectives of the Corporation.

The Boards and/or Voting Delegate decision shall be final and binding on the Officer, without any further right of appeal. Once removed from office, the Officer may also vacate his position on the National Board.

143.1 Remuneration

No remuneration shall be paid to any elected or appointed director, or to any other person acting in a volunteer capacity for/at the National level, including on committees, for services rendered to or on behalf of the Corporation.

143.1.1 Expenses and Small Gifts

Reasonable out-of-pocket expenses may be paid in accordance with National policy to elected or appointed directors, members and volunteers performing duties or attending meetings as authorized by the Board of Directors or its delegate. This provision shall not prevent volunteers from receiving small, token gifts in recognition of service.

148 Duties of Directors and Officers

Every director and officer, in exercising their powers and discharging their duties shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Corporation; and exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. He shall comply with this Act and the regulations; the articles, the by-laws and any vote by ordinary or special resolution of the members.

148.1 Responsibilities of Officers

The National President shall, when present and able, convene and chair all meetings of the members. The National President may sit as an ex officio member of all committees of the Corporation and will be duly identified as such. The Vice-President shall perform such duties as assigned by the National President or by the National Board of Directors. In the absence or disability of the National President, the Vice-President shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President for as long as required and/or until the following AGM. The Treasurer shall oversee the financial operation of the Corporation.

151.6 Indemnification and Insurance

For the protection of individuals serving in the positions of directors and officers, the Corporation will purchase and maintain an appropriate amount of directors and liability insurance. The insurance policy will be reviewed annually by the Board of Directors.

Part 10: Bylaws and Members

152.2 Member Approval of Bylaws

The Directors shall submit the by-law, amendment or repeal to the members at the next meeting of members, and the Voting Delegates may, by special resolution, confirm, reject or amend the by-law, amendment or repeal.

154 Conditions of Membership

These conditions of membership shall apply: membership is available only to an adult who has paid the appropriate membership fee and whose application has been accepted; and to individuals or organizations who have expressed an interest in and support of the mandate of the Corporation.

154.2 Classes of Membership

There shall be four (4) classes of members in the Corporation, namely, Individual, Family, Affiliate and Associate Member Organizations (AMO). Individual and Family are voting memberships. Affiliate is a non-voting membership, available to individuals who reside outside of Canada. Associate Organization is a non-voting membership, available to organizations. The term of membership shall be annual, subject to renewal in accordance with the policies of the Corporation.

154.4 Voting Rights

Individual and Family members are entitled to receive notice of and attend all meetings of members, and shall be entitled to one (1) vote at the relevant Branch meeting of members including the Branch Annual General Meeting. Voting members elect the Branch President who is then designated to serve as the Voting Delegate on behalf of that Branch.
